Showing the highest and lowest prices paid on this market for mixed packing hogs dur-ing the past seven days and for the corre-sponding period last month. March - I

All sales of stock in this market are made per cwi, live weight unless otherwise stated. Dead hogs sell at ½c per lb for all weights. "Skins," or hogs weighing less than 100 lbs, no value. Pregnant sows are docked 40 lbs and stags 80 lbs. Hog market closed lower. Prime fat cattle in demand. Scalawag cows are slow sale.

Only three cars of hogs shipped. J. Lansing, Fairfield, sold a load of hogs. Keine & M., Albion, marketed a load of F. M. Phillips, Lorah, had 34 cattle on the

There have been no sheep on the market in over a week. Hogs were selling very much as they were a month ago. For several days in succession the hog market has declined in the afternoon.

Mr. Pearley, of the firm of Burnham & Pearley, Lincoln, was at the yards with two loads of cattle. One bunch of fine cattle, averaging 1,370 lbs, which were sold at private terms, were said to have brought $5.25. C. B. Russell stopped at the yards with 15 fine stallions, which he is taking to Laramie, and are mostly draught horses.

John McShane had 83 head of corn-fed cattle arrived to-day from his farm. They came in too late for to-day's market. M. Burke & Sons have sold some of the horses on their North Platte ranch to W. F. Cody to be used in his show this summer.

J. McCrary, Laramie, was in with a load of cattle, hay-fed on the range, which was the first load of this class of cattle to sell on this market, this season.
Governor Leland Stanford, of California, has twelve cars of horses at the Council Bluffs driving park, where they are resting up after their long journey. They will be taken to New York, where some of them will be entered in eastern races, and the others put on the market.

Chicago Tribune: Mention was made ome time ago of the death of James H. Paine, a miser, who was a large stock-holder in the Chicago Land company. In the exchanges from the New York clearing house received by the Metropolitan bank of that city recently was a package of greasy, old-fashioned bank notes amounting to $12,300, the notes having been issued by the Metropolitan bank when it was a state institution. In October, 1861, Paine deposited a draft for $52,500 the Metropolitan bank, drew out $12.500 in eash, and received four deposit certificates for $10,000 each. A short time ago Mr. Chickering, one of the executors of Paine's estate, presented the certificates and received the $40,000. Had the certificates carried the Had the certificates carried the alleged interest the money would have increased to nearly $20,000. The $12,000 increased to nearly $20,000. The $12,000 in bank notes were the same bill given by Paine a quarter of a century ago to make up the balance of the drafts. The bank refused to redeem the bills in current money on the ground that the six years' limit, which was declared in 1863, when the bank became a national one, and which was to the effect that the bank would redeem its notes issued under the would redeem its notes issued under the stace law for six years following, had ex-pired. Mr. Chickering will bring suit against the bank.

Brought Him Back. Sig Turkelson, the 18-year-old runway, is once more at home. He arrived at Harvard, this state, Sunday, and to his dismay found that his father was there, in fact, had been in the town twenty-four hours. He was brought home yesterday.
